

K-LOVE is the main station my children and I listen to. It serves our family and our community by providing wholesome values, an alternative to other stations which are not child-appropriate. It also has a positive and encouraging impact on everyone who listens. Hardly a day goes by that I am not "inspired" by a song or a message on KLOVE. KLOVE is important to our community and definately serves the public interest.

Apryl Neal